

C2FO Payment Program

Frequently Asked Questions

March 2023

Please reference the FAQs below related to the C2FO Early Pay program.

Q1: Do we foresee turning on C2FO again in the future or later this year?

A1: We will continue to monitor the business environment and evaluate further participation in the program at a later time.

Q2: What avenues will we have for early pay options?

A2: Payments will be processed based on the contracted term set up in the Purchase Order.

Q3: I cannot operate my business and will need to renegotiate terms now that early pay options are no longer available. Who can I talk to in Intel to negotiate terms?

A3: If you are a contracted supplier, please talk to your dedicated Commodity Manager. If you are a non-contracted supplier, payments will follow the current standard payment terms identified in the Purchase Order.
